

A free press is vital to our democracy. By concentrating media ownership in an increasingly smaller number of corporate hands, we lose portions of the spectrum of opinion that strengthen and improve our country.

Please maintain the regulations that disallow corporate domination of media markets by allowing one corporation to own multiple media outlets. We need all of America's voices to keep us strong and fair.